

MD325-1

MD325

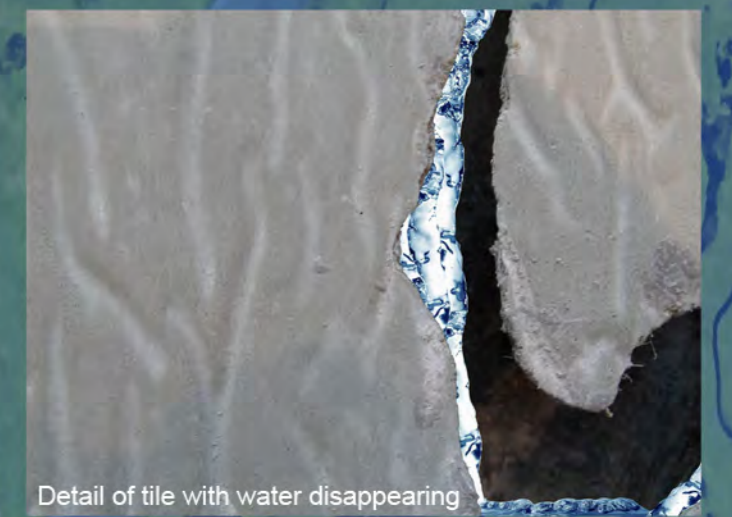

Meander Drain

These tiles replace your drainpipe by meandering down the rain water.

At some places you can see the water flow, at other places the flow disappears into the wall.

Detail of tile with water disappearing

The surface of the tile has its remarkable texture due to the use of paper inside the mold that left its traces by wrinkling though the wet concrete.

Detail of tile with wrinkle-effect